

DOLPHIN TANK®

Dolphin Tank AgTech may be over, but the momentum doesn't stop!

What a night! The Dolphintank pitch event devoted to women founders innovating in AgTech is in the books.

From the founders sharing their passion to the expert panelists sharing their experience and expertise, the energy in the room was electric! At Springboard, we like to say that Dolphintank is all about "How can we help?" - and thanks to our amazing community, last night lived up to that philosophy.

If you joined us...

Thank you for jumping in and being a Dolphin for the evening! The insights you and the community offered will prove invaluable for our founders.

If you missed it...

There is still an opportunity for you to contribute your insights, resources, and connections.

Here's How You Can Help

The founders who presented last night are listed below. Here are a few ways you can help them scale and grow:

1. Click on the links below to connect on LinkedIn or learn more about their company.
2. Reach out to them and introduce yourself. Offer them your insights, resources, and connections.
3. Spread positive word of mouth using social media and be sure use #dolphintank so we can see your photos.
